Introduction

Please note, this folder is by no means our complete collection of music. This is just the top music selections chosen by chart success. Please take time to look through it as it may be very helpful for you to pick some songs for your special day! If you are looking through this in preparation for your wedding (or event), if you don't find something you are looking for please let us know as soon as possible in case we don't have the song or particular version you are looking for.

If your looking at this at an event, if there are songs you wish to be played, take note of them on a request slip and pass it to us.

We hope you enjoy the night. As with all requests, we will do our best to play them all. If there is anything else we can do to make your night more enjoyable, please let us know.

The Role and Responsibility Of An MC (Master Of Ceremonies)

A competent master of ceremonies is required to wear many hats, a speaker, a traffic controller, a time keeper and a program director, all rolled into one.

The atmosphere and the success of the formal portion of the reception for the big day is in your hands. Good luck Master of Ceremonies. Below is a list of the duties and responsibilities of your assignment.

These are optional. You can add or delete some as you choose, as this show is up to you and the newlyweds.

- Introduce yourself
- Introduce the head table
- Announce any wishes of the bride and groom
- Direct tables to get food (only applies to buffet meals)
- Introduce special guests
- Read telegrams or e-mails or letters of wishes
- Toast to the bride - reply groom
- Toast to the bridesmaids - reply groomsman
- Speeches - parents of the bride and parents of the groom
- Special speakers - optional toast
- Words of thanks - acknowledgements (clergy, flowers, caterers, music)
- Close of the formal part of the reception
- Special announcements of events to follow

Of course this is not in order or everything you may need to do. No matter how much practice you put in, there is always something that won't go to plan or that may arise and you haven't even thought of it. If there is anything we can do to assist, please let us know.
